

Linda Turner was appointed a member of the Board of the Spiritual Response Association on 18th April 2009.

Linda is a dedicated SRT practitioner and has been an active supporter of the SRA for many years. She has organised many events in the UK on their behalf, the latest being the forthcoming Intensive Skills Class at the end of May. She became an SRT practitioner in 2002, a consultant in 2003, an SRT teacher in October 2005 and a Spiritual Restructuring teacher in May 2008.

Whilst the appointment came as a complete surprise to her, it is nevertheless an important one for all practitioners, consultants and teachers in the UK.

She says, "Although we speak the same language, our cultural differences sometimes mean that wires can become crossed and we each misinterpret the other's intention or meaning. Hopefully the way is now clear for better and more open communication".

The UK currently has 10 teachers: Peter Davies, Michael Hill, Nkechi Aligbe-Abeng, Teresa Leong, Paul Whitehead, Irenka Danielewicz-Herbert, Linda Turner, Amanda Roberts, Alasdair Hill and Bridget Mary-Clare, around 10 consultants and an estimated 200 practitioners.
